

Registration Form

The Kāpili Polynesian Dance and Music Workshops are a gathering of students of Polynesian cultural arts who will join together with kumu hula, artistic directors, musicians and artisans willing to share their talent and aloha.

Our workshops are structured to encourage the student to go deeply into their chosen topic through directed study with a single master teacher for a full weekend of instruction.

Following the workshop on Sunday will be the Hō'ike Pau Hana where participants can share what they have learned.

February 17 – 18th, 2024 at Golden Gate School, 6200 San Pablo Avenue in Oakland, CA.

Hours: Saturday 8:30 - 4:30; Sunday 9:15 - 4:30.

Parking is available. Lunch will be provided both days by Landeza's Island Catering.

Fees - Include a Complimentary Unisex T-Shirt

Early Bird Workshop Fee $135 ($160 after January 26, 2024.)

Early Bird Hālau Fee of $125 per participant when five or more register from the same hālau ($150 after January 26, 2024).

Kāpili Polynesian Dance and Music Workshops The Māheua Uchiyama Center for International Dance

Name _____ Phone _____ email _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Hālau affiliation (if any) _____

Workshop Fee: $135 ($160 after January 26th)

Hālau (5+ participants) $125 per participant ($150 after January 26th)

Total Enclosed: _____

No Refunds After January 26th, 2024

Make check out to MUCID

Mail to MUCID, 4200 Park Blvd. #279, Oakland CA 94602

Email questions to LoriChristine615@gmail.com

The Center for International Dance is supported in part by grants from:
City of Berkeley Civic Arts Grants, San Francisco Foundation, Gerbode Foundation, Center for Cultural Innovation,
The Alliance for California Traditional Arts, Alameda County Arts Commission, California Arts
Council, Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, Kenneth Ranin Foundation and the Fleishhacker Foundation.

Contact Person/Phone/E-mail _____

[illegible][illegible]