

The Māheha Uchiyama Center for International Dance Kāpili Polynesian Dance and Music Workshops

Registration Form

The Kāpili Polynesian Dance and Music Workshops are a gathering of students of Polynesian cultural arts who will join together with kumu hula, artistic directors, musicians and artisans willing to share their talent and aloha.

Our workshops are structured to encourage the student to go deeply into their chosen topic through directed study with a single master teacher for a full weekend (Saturday and Sunday) of instruction.

Following the workshop on Sunday will be the Hō'ike Pau Hana, where participants can share what they have learned.

February 14 – 15th, 2026 at Pear Tree Community School, 6925 Chabot Road in Oakland, CA.

Hours: Saturday 8:30am - 4:30pm; Sunday 9:15am - 4:30pm.

Parking is available.

Lunch will be provided both days by Landeza's Island Catering.*
